24 ORDER TO
EXTEND TIME TO FILE
ADMINISTRATIVE BRIEFS

25 (FIRST REQUEST)

STIPULATION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE
ADMINISTRATIVE BRIEFS

The above-captioned parties, by and through their respective counsel of record and pursuant to LR 6-1 and LR 26-4, do hereby stipulate and request this Court to extend the deadline for service and filing with the Court of Administrative Appeal Briefs set forth in this Court's Order entered September 7, 2006, was briefs due thirty (30) days thereafter for Plaintiffs and forty-five (45) days thereafter. The parties request an additional sixty (60) days for Plaintiffs and seventy-five (75) days for Defendants.

This stipulation is entered into on the following basis, and for good cause, and is the first request for extension:

Co-counsel for the Plaintiffs, Marianne Lanuti, Esq. is the person most knowledgeable concerning the administrative record and the pursuit of the administrative appeal, as the sole counsel of record involved in the administrative hearing on behalf of the Plaintiffs and is therefore an essential legal resource in drafting the court-ordered brief on Defendant's Administrative Judicial Review.

Marianne Lanuti's husband has terminal cancer, and is in the final stages of his life. Marianne Lanuti, for the past three (3) months has not been engaged in the practice of law, and seeks an extension for sixty (60) days both to care for her husband and their minor children. The defendants have consented to this request for a sixty (60) day continuance with Defendant's brief due fifteen (15) days thereafter, based on Ms. Lanuti's unavailability due to the husband's terminal illness.
